

Almanac (2022) -- Rehearsal docs

This is a detailed rehearsal almanac for the year 2022. The grid spans from January 1st to December 31st, with columns representing days of the week and rows representing rehearsal sessions. Each cell in the grid contains information about the rehearsal, including the date, time, location, and the specific instrument or personnel involved. The grid is color-coded to distinguish between different rehearsal types and locations. Key elements include:

- Instrument Rows: The top section of the grid lists various instruments such as Flute, Oboe, Clarinet, Bass Clarinet, Alto Saxophone, Tenor Saxophone, Bassoon, Horn I, Horn II, Trumpet, Trombone, Percussion, Electric Keys, Violin One, Violin Two, Viola, Cello, Double Bass, Text, and Action.
- Personnel Rows: The bottom section of the grid lists the names of the personnel, such as Maddy Wildman, Bryce Richardson, Sadie Gorka, Lily Raaf, Jeremy Howell, Oliver Bishop, Ingrid Isicah, Riley Lee, Markel T. Caradine, Michael Knopf, Liu Feng, Elena Chambers, Peter Williams, Brian Mackay, Sean Chambers, Jim, Kim Smallwood, Melina Duhaime, Iyad de Lencow, Thomas McCarthy, Joe Fee, Cary Murphy, Cameron Wilson, Colin McGill, Alex C. I play viola, in school and lessons and a chamber group from 5th-11th grade. I taught myself how to read music to convince my mom to get me piano lessons and played from about age 7-15. I still play and sing and also play guitar (took a semester class in high school) plus I taught myself one song on the ukulele which I noodle around on some. I bought myself a korg minilogue after loving playing it from the library! i don't have any cords or an amp for it as of now though, I just get those out from the library periodically. SO all that to say I LOVE MUSIC and making it. Oh yea I also practiced to sing background for Kat Steih (but got injured right before our first show - i'm on crutches now for a while longer) and have done a bit of lessons with her and rhythm workshops with her too. I'm really good at sight reading and pretty solid at improv stuff for both words and music. | they/them | communitypollinator@gmail.com | 7342620613 | Text | Other | I'm comfortable singing easy songs in groups, I can read sheet music | prefer no dairy but i love it so not really :) | I'd need rides to the rehearsals and show | Thank you so much for this opportunity!!!! I live in Ypsi and am unable to drive due to my injury - I also require accessibility information due to being on crutches and/or knee scooter depending on how much moving around is required.
